Access into Belfast

By Air

Belfast is easily accessible from major cities in the UK, Europe, the USA and Canada with regular scheduled flights coming into both Belfast City and Belfast International Airports. Direct access is available from Newark/New York with Continental airlines; and directly from Canada, Toronto and Vancouver with Zoom airlines. There are flights to Belfast from many UK regional airports and travel from most UK destinations takes just over 1 hour.

George Best Belfast City Airport is situated just 3 miles from the city centre on the south shores of Belfast Lough. A regular bus service operates from the Belfast City Airport into the city centre bus station at the Europa Hotel. The fare is £1.30 single or £2.20 return. The journey time is approximately 5 minutes.

Belfast International Airport is situated 17 miles north of the city and is served by a regular bus service, which operates every 10 minutes to and from the city centre. The journey time is approximately 25 minutes and is at a cost of £6 single or £9 return.

Over the past year there has been an introduction of many new direct flights from International countries to Belfast.

Airlines operating into Belfast include: Continental Airlines, Flyzoom, bmi, FlyBe, easyJet, bmi baby, Eastern Airways, Jet2, FlyKeen, Airtransat, bnwa and euromanx. (For more information please see the table on the next page)

For those delegates flying into Dublin International Airport it takes approximately two hours from Belfast by road or rail, with regular and direct coach transfers running from the airport to Belfast city.
